

INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE PROGRAM

„Mechanisms of financial system stability in an unstable environment”

21st November 2016

Warsaw School of Economics, Hall VII, building G, al. Niepodległości 162

09:00-09:30 Registration

09:30-10:15 Opening Ceremony

- Professor Marek Rocki, Ph. D., Rector of the Warsaw School of Economics
- Professor Wojciech Morawski, Dean of Collegium of Socio-Economics of the Warsaw School of Economics
- Professor Bogusław Pietrzak, Department of Treasury, Warsaw School of Economics

10:15-12:15 Inauguration Lectures

Session title: Macro- and microeconomic mechanisms of financial stability

Chair of session: Professor Agnieszka Alińska, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics

- Paweł Szalamacha, Member of the Management Board of the National Bank of Poland – Limits and restrictions of quantitative easing (QE)
- Zdzisław Sokal, President of the Management Board of the Bank Guarantee Fund – Resolution – support of the financial system’s stability
- Marek Chrzanowski, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics, Chairman of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority – The role of financial supervision in maintaining of financial system stability
- Professor Waldemar Rogowski, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics, BIK S.A. – Quality of loans – BIK’s database perspective

12:15-13:15 Lunch

13:15-15:00 Foreign Guests' Lectures

Session title: International experiences in reduction of consequences of the worldwide financial and economic crisis

Chair of session: Professor Mariusz Próchniak, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics

- Professor Hans Groeneveld, Ph. D., Campus Tilburg/Rabobank, the Netherlands – Stability in Banking: Determinants and ownership structures
- Professor Günter Hofbauer, Ph. D., Technische Hochschule Ingolstadt, Niemcy – Basel III Equity Regulations – the Impact on SMEs and a Proposal for Evidence Based Rating
- Professor Hrvoje Šimović, Ph. D., Milan Deskar-Škrbić, Ph. D. Candidate, Antonija Buljan, University of Zagreb, Croatia – Fiscal policy in an unstable economic environment: fiscal multiplier determinants in CESEE countries

15:00-15:15 Coffee Break

15:15-16:15 Poster Session

Session title: Challenges and expectations for the financial sector during turbulences in the financial markets

Chair of session: Professor Bogusław Pietrzak, Warsaw School of Economics

- Professor Agnieszka Alińska, Ph. D., Katarzyna Wasiaak, Ph.D., Warsaw School of Economics – Financial aid mechanisms in the financial instability conditions
- Piotr Bolibok, Ph.D., The John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin – Household debt and the growth of consumer spending in the OECD countries post the financial crisis
- Professor Natalia Konovalova, Ph. D., RISEBA University, Latvia – Adjustment of Banks' Activity on the Basis of Basel III Requirements: Experience and Problems of Eastern Europe Countries
- Elżbieta Malinowska-Misiąg, Ph.D., Warsaw School of Economics – Fiscal transparency and stability of the Polish public finance system
- Professor Edyta Małecka-Ziembińska, Ph. D., Poznań University of Economics and Business – Gap in the goods and services tax and methods for its reduction
- Professor Mariusz Próchniak, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics – Quantitative analysis of the financial system stability. Relationship between financial aid, stability of the financial system and economic growth
- Marcin Wajda, Ph. D., Warsaw School of Economics – Activities of international financial institutions in financial system instability conditions

ⁱ The research project has been financed by the National Science Centre in Poland (decision number DEC-2013/09/B/HS4/03610).