

Cycle of symposium: „Modern management problems”

XI Symposium of SGH Warsaw School of Economics
„Knowledge. Learning. Mentoring – international perspective”

25th June 2019

Aula I, building C SGH, Al. Niepodległości 128, Warsaw

10.30-11.00 Registration with morning coffee and tea

11.00-11.10 Welcome – Prof. Wachowiak and Dr. Sylwester Grzegorzcyk

(Director - Institute of Management, SGH Warsaw School of Economics)

11.10 -11.30 Knowledge Management with the wisdom of hindsight

Prof. Jan Fazlagić (Poznań University of Economics, Poland)

11.30-11.55 Mentoring women on IT managerial positions – case of USA and Poland

Dr. Michelle Ramim (Middle Georgia State University, USA), Dr. Celina Sołek-Borowska (SGH Warsaw School of Economics, Poland)

12.00-12.20 Opening the knowledge treasures that are locked in audio and video - principles and vision

Dr. Vered Silber-Varod, Director, Open Media and Information Lab (The Open University of Israel, Israel)

12.25-12.50 Discussion

12.50-13.30 Lunch

13.30-13.50 Retaining the knowledge of talents in a modern enterprise

Dr. Joanna Tabor-Błażewicz (SGH Warsaw School of Economics, Poland)

13.50- 14.10 Preparing students for engaged scholarship: Lessons from Africa

Dr. Christiaan Maasdorp – Stellenbosch University, Republic of South Africa

14.10-14.30 Discussion

14.30-14.40 Summary and closing of the Symposium, Prof. Piotr Wachowiak